BAN ON USE OF PLASTICS

A skit performed by the students of the college

SANKSHOBHA

Sankshobha, which means Groundswell. This drama shows our future generation will face cruel fatalness due to our needs. This is a drama built based on virtual problems with the touch of science. Which has the theme as Discussion about Plastic? The story is wanders between present and future through the Science's possible imaginary baby TIME MACHINE!

After two thousand years, the paradise like Bharat becomes barren land due to overusing of Plastic. On that ambiance, the play begins with the dialogues of two characters named pollutions. Then it slowly shows about people's pain, burden for breath, death etc.

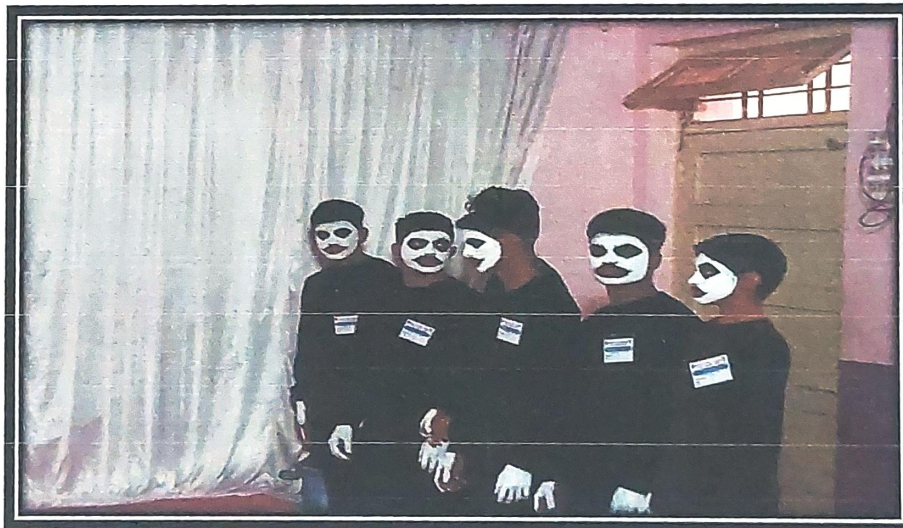

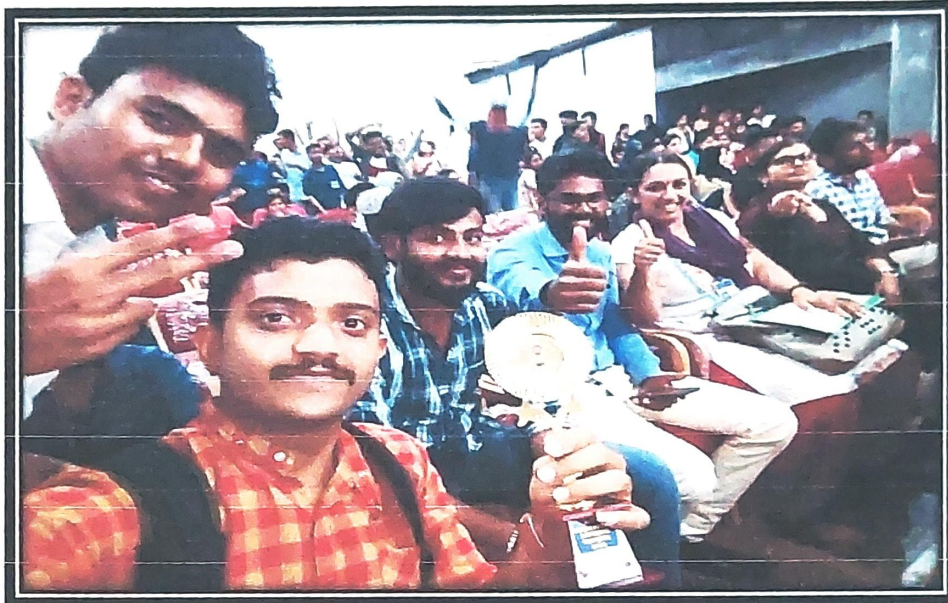

Then those for spent people travels to their past through the time machine in the process of finding reasons for their difficult life; which is our present. Here, they saw present fact of plastic usage, unscientific wastage disposal. Our off springs are watch our mistakes then they again go back to the future. After reaching their present, they are going to the death due to lack of oxygen. Before that, they are given a message to us by setting the Time machine to the present that "You only have the amendable opportunity to correct it!" By this, the act tries to implement the Awareness in the people.
